Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Monday 16 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry with bright spells, clouding over later in west.

Today:
Mainly dry with bright spells, the best of the sunshine expected across Dundee, Fife into Lothian and Borders. Cloud thickening in the west in the afternoon and outbreaks of rain reaching the west coast later in the afternoon.

Tonight:
Cloud and rain extending east during the evening and after some initial heavy pulses it will generally be light and drizzly. Mist and fog patches developing. Shetland mainly fair.

Tuesday:
Light drizzle rain for many to start but becoming dry for most. Some sunny spells developing in the east and pleasantly warm for Fife and Tayside.

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Many places dry, some warm sunshine in parts of the south and east. Staying mostly cloudy in the west with a little light rain at times. Rain spreading north Friday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.